  – Continuing Professional Development
  – Short Courses
• Panelist opinions and challenges
• Open discussion of key issues
• Way forward
PHM Needs

1) PHM is a diverse, multi-disciplinary domain with rapidly evolving capability needs.

2) Initial education and training from many disciplines must be complemented by specialized and professional development over a career.

3) Benchmarks are needed for career planners, employers and training developers to facilitate transitions between mastery levels.

4) Stakeholders in academia, industry and government want a stream of qualified practitioners.
Dialogue Objectives

- Identify PHM education and professional development (EPD) needs
- Identify PHM EPD resources
- Prioritize gaps and opportunities
- Panelists:
  - George Vachtsevanos (Georgia Tech)
  - Greg Kacprzynski (Sikorsky/Lockheed Martin)
  - Ravi Rajamani (drR2)
  - Kai Goebel (NASA)
  - Lachlan Astfalck (University of Western Australia)
